

Hillsborough Concours d'Elegance Returns: BMW & Ford Named As Featured Marques, Glen Egan Appointed As Chairman

Taking Place July 18, Eagerly Awaited Annual Gathering Will Be Highlighted by Display of More Than 200 Pristine Collector Cars at Crystal Springs Golf Course

HILLSBOROUGH, CA (June 1, 2021) –The Hillsborough Concours d'Elegance today announced the appointment of lifelong collector car enthusiast Glen Egan as its new chairman, as well as the selection of BMW and Ford as featured marques for the 2021 festivities, which will be held July 18 at Crystal Springs Golf Course in Burlingame.

A passionate lifelong Italian sports car aficionado, Mr. Egan spent ten years restoring a 1987 Fiat X/19. An avid motorsports enthusiast, he has participated in amateur motorcycle and kart racing and has been the sponsor of the go-kart championships at Sonoma Raceway for the last decade. Mr. Egan has worked managing logistics for the Concours since 2015.

In honoring the iconic BMW and Ford brands, the Hillsborough Concours d'Elegance will present guests a slew of dedicated classes for the two marques, as well as special displays.

The Concours will feature over a dozen additional “Automobiles of Distinction” groupings, including American Pre- and Post-War, CCA Approved Classics, American Sporting Cars Through 1987, Vintage Motorcycles, two Ferrari classes, two imported sports car classes, Japanese cars, a preservation class, two Rolls-Royce and Bentley classes, vintage hot rods, Shelby GTs, station wagons, imported passenger and touring cars, vintage race cars and arcane and rare cars.

“We are honored to have the opportunity to celebrate our featured marques, with incredible displays including everything from the iconic BMW M1 to a vividly futuristic Ford Thunderbird concept car,” said Mr. Egan. “Since last year’s Concours was cancelled due to the pandemic, we’re eagerly looking forward to the kick-off gathering, Saturday road tour and the Concours on Sunday.”

Founded in 1956, the Concours presents exceptionally rare automobiles spanning virtually every genre and marque, from hot rods and muscle cars to sports cars, motorcycles and elegant classic luxury models in a magnificent setting on the 18th fairway of the Crystal Springs Golf Course.

The Concours will conclude a memorable weekend of festivities that start on Friday with a kick-off party featuring 40 vintage and classic cars on display in a historic building in Burlingame. On Saturday, the annual Hillsborough Tour d'Elegance road rally will traverse the Bay Area’s most stunning back roads and scenic vistas led by police escort finishing at a private estate for lunch. Tickets for all three events can be purchased via: Tickets | Concours \(hillsboroughconcours.org\)

Partnering with the Town of Hillsborough, The Concours event raises proceeds for Ability Path, The Guardsmen and the Hillsborough Schools Foundation.

Title sponsors included Franklin Templeton Investments and Fiduciary Trust International. Additional sponsors include Courseco Inc., Kerns Fine Jewelry, Bonhams, The Candy Store and Highway One Classic Automobiles.
